

Missoula Children's Theatre Residency Prescott Learning Centre Permission Slip

From Monday April 29th through Saturday May 4th Missoula Children's Theatre (MCT), a touring theatre company, will be at Prescott Learning Centre to provide our students the opportunity to participate in a drama production of Robin Hood. 60 PLC students (and four assistant directors) will audition, rehearse, and then on Saturday May 4th, will be staging two performances at the school for friends, family, and the general public. Two tour actors/directors from Missoula Montana will spend the week preparing for the production with after school auditions (Monday) and rehearsals (after auditions Monday, and Tuesday through Friday) with the productions occurring Saturday afternoon and evening. The production is open to students from Kindergarten through Grade Nine. Parents/guardians are permitted to attend rehearsals, however there is a fee to attend performances. Each actor/assistant director will be provided a free ticket for one of the productions on Saturday. Tickets for the performances will be available at a fee up to $10.00 for friends and family. There is no fee for your student to participate, however, all performers and assistant directors must attend the audition, all rehearsals, and each performance.
